VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been found expedient to revise the Regulations under which Pensions and Allowances are granted on account of Wounds received in Action by Officers of our Land Forces: our will and pleasure is, that from and after the date hereof this our Royal Warrant, to be administered and interpreted by our Secretary of State for War, shall be the sole and standing authority upon the matters herein contained, and shall take effect from the 28th March, 1854.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this 13th day of June, 1857, in the twentieth year of our reign.

By her Majesty's Command,
PANMURE.

Pensions and Allowances to Officers of the Land Forces, limited to Wounds and Injuries received in Action.

Gratuity of One Year's Pay.

1. If an Officer shall receive a wound in action, which shall occasion the loss of an eye or a limb; or shall lose thereby the total use of a limb; or shall receive bodily injury equal in its consequences to the loss of a limb, he may be eligible to receive a gratuity in money of one year's full pay of the Regimental rank or Staff appointment held by him at the time he was wounded, for the loss of such eye or limb.

Temporary Pension.

2. If an Officer shall be wounded in Action, and it shall be reported by a Board of Army Medical Officers assembled by order of the Secretary of State for War for the personal examination of such Officer that he has, in consequence of his wound, lost a limb or an eye; or has totally lost the use of a limb; or that he has sustained a severe injury in action, equal to the loss of a limb, he may be recommended to her Majesty for a pension, at the rate fixed in the annexed Scale for the rank held by him when he was wounded, and commencing one year after the wound was received; the continuance of which shall depend upon the subsequent examinations and reports of a Military Medical Board, which the Secretary of State for War may appoint at any time for this purpose.

Loss of more than One Limb or Eye.

3. If the Officer shall have lost more than one limb or eye, he may be recommended for a pension for each limb or for each eye so lost in action.

Temporary Pension or Gratuity of Eighteen Months' Pay.

4. If the wound received by an officer in action shall be so severe in its permanent effects as to be nearly equal, but not equal, to the loss of a limb, and the injury shall be reported by the Military Medical Board as materially interfering with the capability of following his profession or gaining his livelihood, he may be recommended to her Majesty for a temporary pension for two years, the continuance of which shall depend upon subsequent examinations before a Military Medical Board; or, he may be recommended for a gratuity of eighteen months' full pay of his Regimental Rank or Staff appointment held by him when wounded, in which case no pension shall be granted to him under this regulation, unless he refund six of the eighteen months' gratuity which may have been awarded to him.

Expense of Cure.

5. If any wound received in action shall be certified to be severe and dangerous, but in its permanent effects not equal to the loss of a limb, the Officer receiving such wound may, in consideration of the expense attending the cure thereof, receive a gratuity, varying, according to the nature of the case, from three to twelve months' full pay of the Regimental rank or Staff appointment held by him at the time he was wounded.

Permanent Pension.

6. If an Officer shall have held a pension for a wound received in action for a term of five years, and shall have been examined twice at the least before a Board of Army Medical Officers, he may be recommended for the permanent continuance of such pension; but if the Officer, before the expiration of the term of five years, shall have so far recovered, that his wound or injury is not equal to the loss of a limb, then he shall cease to receive such pension, and shall have a gratuity of full pay according to the degree of his injury, as laid down in Article 5.

Limit of Application for Pension.

7. If within the period of five years after a wound has been received, an Officer shall not apply for the pension, or, on his so applying for it, the wound shall not have been proved to be permanently equal to the loss of a limb, such Officer's claim to a pension shall not at any subsequent period be entertained.

Limit of Application for Gratuity.

8. No gratuity or allowance for any wound shall be granted after the lapse of five years from the time the wound was received.

Loss of Vision.

9. No pension for the loss of one eye, from a wound received in action, shall be granted unless the actual loss of vision shall have occurred within five years after the wound was received, and be solely attributable to such wound.

Brevet Rank.

10. As a general rule, the pension shall be granted according to Regimental rank; but in cases in which officers with Brevet rank shall have been employed at the time they were wounded in discharge of duties superior to those attached to their Regimental commissions, the gratuities and pensions shall be given according to the rank they held by Brevet.

Pensions tenable with Pay.

11. These pensions may be held together with any other pay and allowances to which an Officer may be entitled, without any deduction on account thereof.

Gen. No. 277 — A.—77. — Clothing. — 17.

Horse Guards (S. W.), 13th May, 1857.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief having signified his desire that the issue of Waterproof Capes to Troops embarking shall be discontinued, Commanding Officers are informed that the Circular Memorandum, dated Horse Guards, 26th December, 1854, is cancelled.

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Gen. No. 279 — A.—78. — Ammunition, — 8.

Horse Guards, 13th May, 1857.

When Regiments or armed detachments are ordered on foreign service, application is to be made to the Adjutant General, according to the prescribed form, for Service ball-cartridges, at the rate of twenty rounds per man for Serjeants and sixty rounds per man for rank and file, being put on board the vessels in which they are to be conveyed to their destination, and which will be provided with magazines, or other means of stowing the same in security. Previously to embarkation, the ammunition in possession is to be given into the nearest military store, and Officers commanding at ports of embarkation will be instructed to ascertain that the requisite supply has been duly shipped.

On passages coastwise, which are for the most part performed in vessels having no magazines, the pouches are to be taken from the men before they are allowed to go below, and stowed away, under proper charge, in some secure part of the ship.

By command,
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments and Depôts of Cavalry and to General Officers, for Information.

General No. 280 — Riding Establishment

C.—14 — 1

Horse Guards, 14th May, 1857.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, with a view to render the training of horses more effective, and to improve the riding of Officers and Men in regiments of Cavalry, is pleased to order that the following Regulations be strictly enforced:—

1st. That the selection of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers for the Riding Establishment at Maidstone be made with the greatest care. That active and intelligent Dragoons only are to be detached on this most important duty. With regard to the horses, they must be well made, young, and with good action, and the Orders laid down on that head in the Queen's Regulations, page 378, are to be strictly attended to.

2. That at all stations, whether a Riding School is attached to the barrack or not, an open manege be established.

3. That during the winter and spring—say from 1st November to the end of May—Riding drill be attended to, to the total exclusion of regimental Field exercise.

4. That during that period the regiment be broken up into riding squads.

5. That the trained Officers attend all riding drills with their troops, instead of by classes as heretofore, the young Officers not dismissed drill with recruit squads of their respective troops.

6. At Inspections, Officers will be prepared to ride as a Class.

7. That troops be kept off duty as much as possible in succession for riding drill.

8. That every Captain or Officer commanding a troop, during the course of instruction by the Riding Master, be required to attend the Riding School with his troop, and put it through the whole course of single and double ride.

9. That the whole system of riding instruction taught at Maidstone be strictly, and not in part only, carried out in every regiment.

10. Watering-order parades to be discontinued altogether. Riding drill, in school or manege, to be substituted as much as possible. Horses to be always exercised saddled, under an instructor, to prevent lounging and slovenly riding.

11. A Non-commissioned Officer of each squadron to be qualified as an instructor in the Riding School, and to accompany the squadron on detachment, to keep up the riding of the men and the breaking in of horses.

12. Commanding Officers must dismiss from their minds the prejudice of "breaking horses too fine." It is a mistake to suppose that any amount of judicious breaking can injure a horse or unfit him for Cavalry purposes. Horses are not fit for the ranks unless perfectly obedient to hand and leg; such horses must necessarily work steadier and closer in field movements.

13. When the schooling of Officers and Men has terminated, and the Commanding Officer is satisfied that the whole course of training has been completed, the regiment may be put together for Field exercise.

14. Commanding Officers will then make application for Riding Masters to be sent to Maidstone with their own horses, there to keep up their training.

15. Whenever practicable, it is highly important that troops should be exercised over jumps, hurdles, ditches and trunks of trees.

By Command,
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

Lists of such men will be kept at the Horse Guards, and the Adjutant General will, on your applying to him, furnish you with the names of men, and the Regiments to which they belong, to enable you to make the necessary inquiries of their present Commanding Officers as to their character and qualifications.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

THE following is a List of the names of those to whom the above Decoration has been awarded, in addition to the ones published in "The Monthly Army Lists" for March and June, 1857:—

War Office, 23*rd June*, 1857.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to her Majesty for that Decoration—in accordance with the rules laid down in her Majesty's Warrant of 29th January, 1856—on account of acts of bravery performed by them before the enemy during the late War, as recorded against their several names, viz.:—

Roy. Art.—Colonel COLLINGWOOD DICKSON, C.B.—Date of act of bravery, 17 October, 1854:—

For having, on 17 Oct. 1854, when the batteries of the Right Attack had run short of powder, displayed the greatest coolness and contempt of danger in directing the unloading of several waggons of the field battery which were brought up to the trenches to supply the want, and having personally assisted in carrying the powder barrels under a severe fire from the enemy.

Roy. Art.—Captain GRONOW DAVIS.—Date of act of bravery, 8 Sept. 1855.

For great coolness and gallantry in the attack on the Redan, 8 Sept. 1855, on which occasion he commanded the spiking party, and after which he saved the life of Lieutenant Sanders, 30 F. by jumping over the parapet of a sap, and proceeding twice some distance across the open under a "murderous" fire to assist in conveying that officer, whose leg was broken, and who was otherwise severely wounded, under cover; and repeated this act in the conveyance of other wounded soldiers from the same exposed position.

Roy. Art.—Serjeant Daniel Cambridge.—Date of act of bravery, 8 Sept. 1855.

For having volunteered for the spiking party at the assault on the Redan, 8 Sept. 1855, and continuing therewith after being severely wounded, and for having, in the after part of the same day, gone out in front of the advanced trench under a heavy fire to bring in a wounded man, in performing which service he was himself severely wounded a second time.

4 F.—Private Thomas Grady.—Date of acts of bravery, 18 Oct. 1854, and 22 Nov. 1854.

For having on 18th Oct. 1854, volunteered to repair the embrasures of the Sailors' Battery on the Left Attack, and effected the same, with the assistance of one other volunteer, under a very heavy fire from a line of batteries.

For gallant conduct on 22nd Nov. 1854, in the repulse of the Russian attack on the advanced trench of the Left Attack, when, on being severely wounded, he refused to quit the front, encouraging by such determined bearing the weak force engaged with the enemy to maintain its position.

19 F.—Private Samuel Evans.—Date of act of bravery, 13 April, 1855.

For volunteering to go into an embrasure, thereby rendering very great assistance in repairing damage, under a very heavy fire from the enemy, 13th April, 1855.

ARTIFICIAL ARMS AND LEGS.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital having at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made Arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that, as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.
Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Warrant bearing date the 15th June, 1855, regulations were established for the grant of Pensions to widows of Officers of the Land Forces; and whereas by the said regulations it is required, in order to give a claim to Pension to the Widow of an Officer dying from the effects of Foreign Service while serving on Full Pay, that such Officer shall have served "seven" years, shall have been in good health when he married, and that it shall be clearly shown that the disease which occasioned his death was accelerated by the performance of his duty, and was not the result of constitutional predisposition, misconduct, or any circumstances over which the Officer himself had control: Our will and pleasure is, that hereafter, if any Officer so dying shall have served "five" years, his widow's claim shall be admissible, subject to the provisions of Our said Royal Warrant. And it is Our further will and pleasure, that the regulations herein contained, to be administered and interpreted by Our Secretary of State for War, shall from henceforth be the sole and standing authority upon the matters herein contained.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Warrant of the 1st July, 1848, it is declared that the distinction and rewards for good conduct shall not extend to serjeants and other non-commissioned officers above the rank of corporal; and whereas it is further declared that corporals shall not be entitled to have their good conduct pay added to their pension on discharge, but that they shall have the option of having their pensions computed as privates, either with the addition of good conduct reward or with the addition of one halfpenny per diem for each year of service completed in the rank of corporal: Our will and pleasure is, that all corporals who enlisted into Our service subsequently to the 1st March, 1838, and who may have been or who shall hereafter be discharged after completing twenty-one years' service in the Infantry or twenty-four years' service in the Cavalry, shall be entitled to have their pensions computed according to the scale prescribed in the second portion of the ninth clause of Our said Royal Warrant, and shall also be allowed to add the good-conduct pay of which they shall have been in possession when discharged, to augment the rate of pension to a sum not exceeding one shilling and sixpence a day.

It is Our further will and pleasure, that all serjeants and other non-commissioned officers above the rank of corporal who enlisted subsequently to the 1st March, 1833, and who may have been or who shall hereafter be discharged after twenty-one years' service in the Infantry or twenty-four years' service in the Cavalry, shall be entitled to have their pensions computed according to the scale prescribed in the said article of Our said Royal Warrant; and shall also be entitled to have their service as serjeant reckoned as good-conduct service, to enable them to add to the rate of good-conduct pay which they had acquired prior to promotion, and to carry the whole to increase their pension: provided always, that the amount of pension thus to be awarded shall in no case exceed the maximum pension prescribed by Our said Royal Warrant of the 1st July, 1848; namely, for a serjeant major, two shillings and sixpence a day; for a quarter-master serjeant, two shillings and three pence; and for a troop serjeant major, color serjeant or serjeant, two shillings a day.

And whereas by the fifth paragraph of the twenty-first clause of Our said Royal Warrant of the 1st July, 1848, it is declared that soldiers who had enlisted before the 2nd March, 1833, shall not be entitled to have their good-conduct pay added to their pension on discharge: Our will and pleasure further is, that all such soldiers, except those who have been discharged upon the modified rate of pension, whether privates, corporals, serjeants or other non-commissioned officers above the rank of corporal, who since the grant of good-conduct pay have been or may hereafter be discharged, shall have the option of being pensioned for service alone, without any consideration for good-conduct pay, under the provisions of the Warrant of the 14th November, 1829. or of reckoning their good-conduct pay or good-conduct service in addition to such rates of pension as men of similar length of service, enlisted after the 1st March, 1833, would be entitled to under the provisions of the Warrant of the 1st July, 1848; provided, however, that the pension, except for wounds received in action, shall in no case exceed, for a private, one shilling and three-pence; for a corporal, one shilling and sixpence; for a serjeant, troop serjeant major or color serjeant, two shillings; for a quarter-master serjeant, two shillings and three-pence; and for a serjeant-major, two shillings and sixpence a day.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 686.

[The enclosed General Order, No. 686, of the 19th June, 1857, relating to attendance at Regimental Schools, is to be substituted for the one of the same number and date; and which latter is to be returned to the Adjutant-General by return of post.

Horse Guards, S. W., 3rd July, 1857.]

Horse Guards, S. W., 19th June, 1857.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief calls the attention of Officers commanding Regiments, Depôts and Depôt Battalions to the condition of their Regimental Schools.

It is scarcely less essential to the soldier to be able to read and write, and keep his own accounts, than to be acquainted with his drill. Without these elementary acquirements no soldier is capable of profiting by the instruction given him in the use of the rifled musket,—his promotion is rendered less probable,—and he is deprived of the interest and improvement derivable from the excellent libraries now placed within his reach.

His Royal Highness, therefore, recommends to Commanding Officers that, for the future, every soldier, after being dismissed from drill, shall be encouraged to attend school, until he is reported upon as sufficiently advanced in reading, writing and arithmetic.

With the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War, no fees are to be required for this attendance at School.

It will be desirable that Commanding Officers should so arrange the duties of the men as to give, if possible, at least four hours' attendance, each week, to all men disposed to attend the above class.

No man is to be considered eligible for promotion to corporal, unless in the field, who has not been dismissed the above class.

For promotion to the rank of serjeant higher qualifications may be expected. It is not intended, at present, to lay down an absolute rule on the subject; but the attention of Commanding Officers is particularly called, by His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, to the importance of carrying the education of non-commissioned officers to a higher point than the mere acquisition of the arts of reading and writing. With this view it must be well understood that those men who avail themselves most intelligently of the means of improvement within their reach, will be generally preferred for promotion, where, in respect to conduct and soldier-like bearing, they are eligible for it; and that neglect so to do will be regarded as a disqualification. It is not, however, intended hereby to fetter the discretion of Commanding Officers in the promotion of men who display conspicuous courage, or show the tact and moral influence which give non-commissioned officers weight with their comrades.

By Command of His Royal Highness,
The General Commanding-in-Chief.
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

SIR, Horse Guards, S.W., 9th July, 1857.

IT having been decided, with a view of obtaining uniformity in the pattern of knapsacks, that those of the patterns in use previous to 1854 shall be exchanged gratis for knapsacks of the pattern of that year:

You are therefore hereby authorized to make a requisition on the War Office for knapsacks to replace those of old patterns as stated in your Return; and on their arrival, the knapsacks now in use will be handed over in as good order as possible to the nearest Military Storekeeper.

I am further directed to intimate to you the wish of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, that the men under your command should be encouraged to have the stick and strap added to the knapsack according to the new pattern.

The expense of this addition is trifling, and by the introduction of the stick the knapsack will be found to fit more closely to the upper part of the back, and will consequently be carried with greater ease.

The slings may in some instances require to be lengthened by the addition of a small piece of buff at the ends.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient humble Servant,
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

The General Commanding-in-Chief having entered into an arrangement with the War Office, whereby, as a means of providing profitable occupation for the time of both Officers and Men while at sea, lecture-room models, &c., are to be furnished for the use of the Instructor of Musketry actually embarked with a regiment proceeding on or returning from foreign service, or removing from one foreign station to another, His Royal Highness, in notifying the same for general information and guidance, directs Commanding Officers to make requisitions for these articles in time to admit of their being put on board ship, and requests that General and other Officers commanding at ports of embarkation will take care that this service is duly provided for.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.
Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

THIS Company was established in 1844 for the purpose of opening to the public an easy and unquestionable safe mode of Investment, with a high and uniform rate of Interest.

The plan of the BANK OF DEPOSIT differs entirely from that of ordinary Banks in the mode of employing capital—money deposited with this Company being principally lent upon well-secured Life Interests, Reversions in the Government Funds, or other property of ample value. This class of securities, although not immediately convertible, it is well know yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the perfect safety. Further, Loans made by the Company are collaterally secured by a Policy of Assurance on the life of the Borrower, or his nominee, effected at a rate of premium which insures the validity of the Policy against every possible contingency.

Thus depositors are effectually protected against the possibility of loss, whilst the large and constantly increasing revenue arising from the premiums on Assurances thus effected yields ample profit to the Company, and provides for all the expenses of management.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS may be opened with sums of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of depositors.

A receipt, signed by two Directors, is given for each sum deposited.

RATE AND PAYMENT OF INTEREST.

The rate of Interest since the establishment of the Company has never been less than five per cent. per annum; and it is confidently anticipated that the same careful and judicious selection from securities of the description above mentioned will enable the Board of Management to continue this rate to Depositors.

The Interest is payable in January and July, on the amount standing in the name of the depositor on the 30th of June and 31st of December, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or remitted through Country Bankers.

PETER MORRISON,
Managing Director.

3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

Forms for opening accounts may be obtained at any of the Branches or Agencies, or they will be forwarded, post free, on application to the Managing Director.

By Authority.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

No. 117.

ARMY SCHOOL REGULATIONS.

July, 1857.

Schoolmasters' Qualification and Term of Enlistment.

1. Schoolmasters appointed under the authority of the Secretary of State for War must have undergone training at the Royal Military Asylum and obtained a certificate of qualification before they can enter upon the discharge of their duties. They are enlisted for ten years' service.

Classification.

2. Army Schoolmasters are to be divided into four classes, and are to be thus designated—

First-class Schoolmasters.
Second-class do.
Third-class do.
Fourth-class (Assistant Schoolmasters).

Rank—Schoolmasters to report on Conduct of Assistants.

3. The First-class Schoolmaster will be a Warrant Officer, and will rank after the Commissioned Officers.

The Second-class Schoolmaster will rank with, and the Third-class Schoolmaster next to, the Serjeant Major, and the Assistant Schoolmaster as a Serjeant.

Neither the Schoolmaster nor his Assistant is to be under the authority of any Non-commissioned Officer, as regards the duty of his office.

The Assistant Schoolmaster will be under the immediate superintendence and control of the Schoolmaster of the Garrison or Regiment to which he may from time to time be attached, and will be liable to obey all directions he may receive from such Schoolmaster in regard to his duties in the School, and in preparing returns, &c. connected therewith; subject, of course, to such orders as may be issued by the Officer commanding the Garrison or Regiment; and such Schoolmaster will consider it his duty to advise his Assistant as to his general conduct; and will include in his monthly report to the Secretary of State a report as to that conduct, and the manner in which generally the Assistant has performed his duties during the previous month. The Secretary of State relies with confidence upon the Schoolmaster setting a proper example at all times to every Assistant under his care, and training him, as far as he can, for the future as well as the present duties he has to discharge.

The Assistant Schoolmaster is to have access to the books furnished for the use of the School, after School hours, for the purposes of study; and the Schoolmaster will afford him every assistance in his power to advance him in his studies.

Promotion.

4. Promotion from one class to another shall be made by the Secretary of State, upon the recommendation of the Inspector General of Army Schools, for merit only.

Pay.

5. The pay of each class shall be as follows:—

	s.	d.
First-class Schoolmasters.....	7	0	a day.
Second-class do.	5	6	,,
Third-class do.	4	0	,,
Assistant Schoolmasters	2	0	,,

No Schoolmaster or Assistant Schoolmaster will be entitled to beer money.

Should a Schoolmaster be accepted for re-enlistment for a further term of service as Schoolmaster, his pay from the date of such re-enlistment will be 1*s.* a day in addition to his former pay.

Clothing.

6. The clothing shall be of the same general pattern as that provided for students at the Royal Military Asylum, and shall be as follows:—

FIRST CLASS SCHOOLMASTER.

1 Frock Coat, with Three Stars worked in gold thread on the Collar.....	To be renewed annually.
1 Pair of Trousers
1 Pair of Boots.....
1 Pair of Shoulder Knots.....	Do. biennially.
1 Cap, with a Crown in front worked in gold thread, and Oilskin Cover
1 Silk Sash to be worn over the right shoulder*
1 Cloak
1 Sword and waistbelt

SECOND CLASS SCHOOLMASTER.

The same as the First-class Schoolmaster, with the exception of the Stars on the Coat, which are to be two in number only.

THIRD CLASS SCHOOLMASTER.

The same; but with one Star only on the Coat.

ASSISTANT SCHOOLMASTER.

The same as the First-class Schoolmaster; but without Shoulder Knot, or a Star on the Coat, or a Crown on the Cap; and a Staff Serjeant's Sash.

The clothing of Schoolmasters and of Assistant Schoolmasters will be supplied upon requisitions (Form No. 76) being forwarded to the Secretary of State, countersigned by the Commanding Officer of the Garrison or Corps to which the Schoolmaster or Assistant Schoolmaster is attached.

* Note.—The sashes now in use may continue to be worn round the waist; on the issue of a new pattern they will be worn over the shoulder, as above.

The Dress and appearance, as well as the conduct of the Army Schoolmaster, are on all occasions and in all situations to be such as to command a respect for his position. He is on no account to appear in plain clothes in Camp or Quarters, but the indulgence of wearing plain clothes when travelling or on leave may be conceded to Schoolmasters of the First and Second Class, at the discretion of the Commanding Officer.

Army Schoolmasters meeting an Officer in uniform will be careful to pay him the respect due to his rank.

Quarters and Lodging Allowance.

7. Should no special Quarters have been provided for Schoolmasters in connection with the School, they will be entitled to one room each, and to fuel, light and furniture for the same. A separate kitchen, or share of a kitchen, will also be allowed with the one room, whenever it can be so arranged.

In the case of any Schoolmaster married with leave, the Secretary of State approves of a second room being appropriated to him, together with fuel, light and furniture for the same, upon a certificate signed by his Commanding Officer that he is married with leave, and the production of the letter of leave. At stations where fuel and light is issued by rations, the allowance for a First-class Schoolmaster for one room will be the same as that of a Quartermaster, and for Second and Third Class Schoolmasters, for one room, the same as that of a Staff Non-commissioned Officer of corresponding rank.

The Assistant Schoolmaster will also be entitled to one room, and fuel, and light and furniture for the same.

If Special Quarters can be provided for the Schoolmaster, the room for the Assistant should, if possible, be in those quarters. If no Special Quarters are provided, his room should be as near as possible to the rooms of the Schoolmaster.

When accommodation cannot be provided, the Schoolmasters will be entitled to receive lodging and fuel and light allowance at the following rates, viz.:—

First-class Schoolmasters, unmarried, at Home Stations, Lodging Money at 7*s.* 6*d.* a week, and one room's commuted allowance in lieu of fuel and light at 2*s.* 6*d.* a week.

Second and Third-class Schoolmasters, unmarried, at Home Stations, Lodging Money at 6*s.* per week, and one room's commuted allowance in lieu of fuel and light at 2*s.* 6*d.* per week.

Assistant Schoolmasters, at Home Stations, Lodging Money at 3*s.* per week, and an allowance of half a room's fuel and light at 1*s.* 3*d.* per week throughout the United Kingdom.

Abroad, such rates of Lodging Money, Fuel and Light as may locally exist, the former according to Class No. 11 of the Lodging Money Schedules for the First-class Schoolmasters; according to Class 12, Div. 1, for the Second and Third Classes; and Class 12, Div. 2, for the Fourth Class.

To First, second and Third Class, when married with leave, the commuted allowance in lieu of fuel and light will be issued for two rooms, whenever two rooms may be allotted to them. (See Art. 7.)

Servants and School Orderlies.

A permanent Orderly may be told off to keep the Schoolroom and Schoolmaster's Quarters clean, and to prepare, if required, the Schoolmaster's meals. The Orderly will receive for this duty one shilling a week, which may be charged by the Paymaster in his Account.

Messing.

8. The Schoolmaster is permitted to mess in his own Quarters; but should he prefer it, there will be no objection to his joining the Serjeants' Mess of the Regiment or Garrison to which he may be attached, with the permission of the Commanding Officer.

The Assistant Schoolmaster may also, if he prefer it, join the Serjeants' Mess, with the same permission, but will otherwise mess with the Schoolmaster under whose superintendence he is placed. If the Schoolmaster be married, the Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Garrison may, upon adequate cause shown, suspend this latter arrangement for short periods.

Assistant Schoolmasters selected for Promotion must undergo a further Course of Instruction at the Royal Military Asylum.

9. In the event of the Assistant Schoolmaster being selected for promotion to the higher rank of Schoolmaster, on account of his zeal and intelligence in the performance of his duties and his exemplary conduct as an Assistant Schoolmaster, he must, for the purpose of qualifying himself for the higher appointment, undergo a further course of instruction in the Royal Military Asylum, during which period he will not be entitled to pay, but will receive an allowance of 4*l.* 4*s.* per annum. The Assistant Schoolmaster, on his return to Chelsea, will be subject to examination to show that he has duly kept up his own studies and profited by the means of improvement he has enjoyed under the Schoolmaster whom he has been assisting.

Furlough.

10. Applications from the Schoolmaster for leave of absence should be forwarded by the Commanding Officer to the Adjutant General through the proper channel, if the Regiment is serving at home, or to the General or other Officer commanding on the Station, if the Regiment is abroad.

Detention Allowance.

11. Schoolmasters necessarily detained from proceeding to the several Regiments or Garrisons to which they have been appointed by the Secretary of State, will be granted detention allowance according to the following scale:—

First-Class Schoolmaster	4*s.* 0*d.* per day.
Second, Third and Fourth dittto	3*s.* 6*d.* ,,

Expenses.

They will also be granted the same rate of personal allowance while travelling for each day occupied by the journey (excepting for the days they may be victualled on board Steam or other Ships under Government contract), and will, in addition, be reimbursed the actual and necessary expense of travelling by Railway or Steamboats as Second-class passengers, or by any other conveyance as ordinary passengers, on joining their Regiment, or in visiting detached Schools. The conveyance of School materials is provided for in Art. 26.

The same rate of detention and personal allowance will be granted for the Schoolmaster's wife, if she be a Schoolmistress.

When transferred, by Order of the Secretary of State, from one station to another, Schoolmasters will be allowed to charge for the under-mentioned weight of baggage:—

Unmarried Schoolmasters ..... 4 cwt.
Married Schoolmasters..... 10 ,,

All claims under this article should be forwarded quarterly by the Paymaster to the Secretary of State for a special authority to charge the same in the Pay List, on War Office Form 841, accompanied by the proper Receipts and Vouchers.

When moving with Troops, the Schoolmaster will be entitled to 3 cwt. of baggage, and the same quantity will be allowed to the Schoolmistress, to be covered by an addition of three halfpence per mile to the commuted allowance for carriage drawn for the troops for each Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress.

The Schoolmaster will further be entitled to marching money at the rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* per diem on the same conditions as entitle Commissioned Officers to this allowance.

Marriage.

12. The application from the Schoolmaster for permission to marry should be forwarded for the consideration of the Secretary of State by the Commanding Officer, accompanied by his opinion of the character and respectability of the person whom the Schoolmaster is desirous of marrying.

Upon Foreign Stations the application is in like manner to be forwarded to the General or other Officer commanding, who, if he thinks proper, will sanction the marriage, reporting the same to the Secretary of State.

Schoolmistresses intending to marry, and desirous of retaining their appointment of Schoolmistress, must obtain a similar sanction, explaining whether the intended marriage will remove them from the Regiment or Station to which they may be attached.

Passage of Schoolmaster's Wife and Family.

13. When a Schoolmaster is ordered to proceed from one Station to another by sea, he, with his wife and family, will be entitled to an intermediate or second-class passage at the public expense, and to suitable berths, under such arrangements as the Lords of the Admiralty may from time to time sanction. He will be subject to deduction for rations, when provisioned on board, at the rate of one shilling per diem, but no deduction will be made for provisioning his wife or children. The weight of baggage to be conveyed by sea may be the same as in Art. 11.

The stoppage for an Assistant or Fourth-class Master will be the same as for a Soldier.

14. Schoolmasters requiring medical treatment may, with the authority of the Officer commanding, receive it at their own Quarters, going into Hospital only when the nature of the complaint renders it, in the opinion of the medical officer, desirable. They will be subjected when in Hospital to the usual rate of stoppage for Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers; but when attended in their own Quarters and receiving Medicine only from the Hospital, they will not be subject to stoppage.

15. Under ordinary circumstances a school day will comprise six hours actual attendance in the forenoon, afternoon or evening, as circumstances may require; and where, from the number of Children and Adults attending School, it may be necessary so to arrange the Classes that the Master shall be required to attend more than that time, he will be expected to do so, for at least one hour longer on five days of the week.

Monthly Report.

16. The Schoolmaster will transmit, on the First of each Month, through the Commanding Officer, a report to the Secretary of State, on War Office Form No. 367, of the number of Adults and Children attending the Schools during the previous Month, and of their progress, filling up the column of Remarks with such observations as he may consider necessary. This Report is to be countersigned by the Officer commanding, with any remarks he may consider it desirable to make; and a Copy is to be sent by the Commanding Officer to the Assistant Inspector of the district for his information.

Communications from Schoolmaster.

17. All other communications from the Schoolmaster are to pass through his Commanding Officer, and are to be addressed to the Under Secretary of State. The Commanding Officer is to forward all such communications, without any unnecessary delay, to the Under Secretary of State, marked "Inspector General" of Schools in the corner of the cover, with his signature attached thereto, as recommending or approving the application, accompanying the same with any remarks which he may consider necessary.

Subscriptions, Rates of.

18. On the appointment of a Trained Schoolmaster to a Regiment, the rates prescribed by her Majesty's Regulations to be paid by Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers who voluntarily attend School; viz.—

Serjeants	8*d.* a month.
Corporals	6*d.* ,,
Drummers and Privates	4*d.* ,, instead of being paid to the Schoolmaster, are to be credited to the Public.

Subscriptions, how to be charged and credited to the Public.

19. The amount of such Subscriptions is to be charged to the men monthly from the dates on which they commence to receive instruction from the Schoolmaster, and is to be paid to the Paymaster, who is to give credit for the same in his current Pay List, or, if the Regiment is in India, the amount is to be remitted to England through the remittance returns. The Schoolmaster will account for the subscriptions of the grown Children attending his classes in the same way. See Art. 43.

Should the attendance of any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier have been so much interrupted by necessary duties, or illness, that he has not been present in School four times within the month, the Commanding Officer may authorize remission of the subscription.

Monthly Return of Subscribers to be rendered to the Paymaster.

20. The Schoolmaster is to furnish to the Paymaster a monthly List of the Non-commissioned Officers and Men who have received instruction from him, containing the names according to rank, and the dates from and to which they have attended the School. This return will enable the Paymaster to charge the Officers paying Troops and Companies with the Amount due from the Men, and should be retained by the Paymaster.

Quarterly Return of Subscriptions to be rendered to the War Office.

21. The Schoolmaster is to render to the Secretary of State, immediately after the expiration of each Quarter to 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December, a separate Quarterly Return, on War Office Form No. 369, showing the amount which has been received during the period and credited to the Public. On this form the Schoolmaster will be careful to state the number of Non-commissioned Officers and Men who have attended the School during the Quarter, and to avoid including the same individual more than once.

Books and Materials, first Supply of.

22. On the appointment of a Trained Schoolmaster to a Regiment, a complete set of Books and Materials will be furnished for the use of the School.

Books and Materials, further Supply of.

Such further supplies as may be actually required will also be furnished (except to Regiments in India) upon transmission to the War Office of a requisition in duplicate in Form No. 372.

These supplies will include books and materials for the general use of the School, and small quantities of stationery for the use of the Schoolmaster.

No books or materials will be supplied that are not applied for in the precise terms by which they are designated in the authorized list.

Supply of Forms.

23. Blank Forms for the use of the School should be separately applied for by the Commanding Officer in his periodical requisition, on War Office Forms Nos. 406 and 407.

School Books and Materials, Damage to.

24. To secure the preservation of the books and materials supplied by the Public for the use of the School, Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers attending the same, who may commit any damage to the School property, either wilfully or through carelessness, will be required to pay the value thereof as fixed by the Schoolmaster, subject to the approval of the Commanding Officer in regard to the amount, and the sum so levied should be reported by the Schoolmaster to the Paymaster, who will recover the same, and credit the amount in his accounts.

Digitized by Google

School Books and Materials, Repairs of.

25. Quarterly Returns on War Office Form No. 403 should be transmitted to this Office in duplicate by the Paymaster, showing the estimated cost of any repairs required to the School property, and also the amount which has been recovered from Soldiers and credited to the Public for wilful damages.

School Books and Materials, Carriage of.

26. Any expense incurred for the conveyance of School property, not being personal baggage, from one station to another is to be defrayed out of the commuted rates granted by Article 36, page 21, of the War Office Regulations of 1st July, 1848.

School Accommodation.

27. Should means not exist in the School-room for effectually establishing the present system of instruction, the Commanding Officer should represent the same to the Secretary of State, with full particulars of the dimensions of the School, the defects thereof, and the manner in which they may be remedied.

Fuel and Light for the School.

28. If, in consequence of the number of men attending the School, the supply of Fuel and Light for the use thereof be insufficient, a representation to this effect should be made by the Commanding Officer to the Secretary of State, stating the quantity of Coals and Candles supplied, the number of lights the latter affords, the dimensions of the School, the number of men attending the same, and the increased quantity which is deemed absolutely necessary. It should also be stated whether means exist for supplying the School with gas.

Detachment Schools to be visited.

29. Whenever, on account of the detached state of a Regiment at home it is found necessary to establish Detachment Schools, the Trained Schoolmaster is to visit such Schools once in each month, provided the number of adults attending such School be not less than twenty-five, but not otherwise, without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, and to embody in his monthly report, on Form 367, a separate report as to the state of instruction in such Detachment Schools. Sixpence a day will be allowed for each Master of such a Detachment School.

Assistant Schoolmaster's Appointment.

30. The Assistant Schoolmaster is attached temporarily to such Garrisons or Regiments only as have a trained Schoolmaster appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose of assisting the Schoolmaster in his duties, when such assistance may be required, and will be liable therefore to be removed to other stations by the Secretary of State as he may think proper; but he is not to be removed from the station to which he has been appointed without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State.

Attestation of Schoolmaster.

31. On the appointment of a Trained Schoolmaster to a Regiment by the Secretary of State, a certified copy of his Attestation will be transmitted to the Officer commanding, and his service in the Regiment should be recorded on the third page thereof, dispensing with the usual Regimental number.

Attestation on Transfer.

32. On the transfer of the Schoolmaster to another Regiment or Garrison, the copy of his Attestation, with the record completed to the date of transfer, should be transmitted to the Officer commanding the Regiment or Garrison to which he is transferred.

Schoolmasters' Pay, mode of drawing.

33. As Trained Schoolmasters cannot be attached to particular Companies, they will draw their pay monthly from the Paymasters of the Regiments or Battalions to which they have been appointed.

Admission of Soldiers into the Normal School for training.

34. Applications for the admission of Soldiers into the Royal Military Asylum for the purpose of being trained as Schoolmasters for the Army should be transmitted to the Secretary of State by the Officer commanding the Regiment to which they belong, stating their age and service. They must be unmarried, and of not lower rank than full Corporal, and will be required to undergo examination and competition with other candidates.

Applications for Schoolmasters.

35. Applications from Commanding Officers of Regiments for a Trained Schoolmaster should be addressed to the Secretary of State.

Training of Soldiers for Duty of Acting Schoolmaster—Selection of.

36. With a view to provide a qualified Soldier to act in case of need as Schoolmaster, either to the Service or Depôt Companies, upon the former being ordered to proceed abroad, the Schoolmaster should in anticipation train one or more men of the Regiment in such manner as to secure one competent and available for this duty; and when the Regiment has received orders to proceed on Foreign Service, the name and rank of the Soldier best qualified to act as Schoolmaster should be furnished to the Secretary of State by the Commanding Officer, with an intimation when it is probable that the Depôt Companies will be formed.

Soldier Assistants—Rate of Allowance to, and Number allowed.

37. An Allowance of 3*d.* a day may be paid without special authority to such number of Soldiers, selected by the Commanding Officer to assist the Schoolmaster, as may be found necessary, under the following restrictions:—

When a trained Assistant is attached to the Regiment or Garrison,—

One Soldier Assistant when the numbers of adults and children above eight years of age attending the school reach	120
Two ditto	180
Three ditto	230

And one additional for every additional 50 men.

When there is no trained Assistant,—

One Soldier Assistant when the numbers reach	60
Two ditto	100
Three ditto	140

And one additional for every additional 40 men.

Digitized by Google

The charge for these Allowances in the Pay List must be supported by a certificate from the Commanding Officer of the number of adults actually attending the School during the quarter, and showing whether one or more trained Assistants are attached to the Garrison or Regiment, and by the receipts of the men for whom the charge is made.

Attendance.

38. The Commanding Officer shall appoint the hour at which general instruction shall commence in the School for adult Soldiers, allowing sufficient time previously, when necessary, for the religious instruction of all such as do not object, upon religious grounds, to attend Prayers, the reading of the Scriptures, and the Scripture Lessons, and who shall be required to attend at the time the School is first opened for Prayers, and before it is opened for general instruction.

The hour for commencing the general instruction of the Children being fixed by Article 38 of these Regulations at 9.20 A.M., all Children whose parents do not on religious grounds object to their attending at Prayers, &c. should attend at 9 o'clock A.M. for this purpose.

Commanding Officers, except when duty interferes, are to adhere strictly to such hours of attendance at School, both by Adults and Children, as are settled on the first establishment of the School; and are to certify in the Monthly School Reports that such hours of attendance are adhered to; but when changes in this respect are necessary, the Commanding Officer is to notice the fact in his next monthly report, and assign the cause.

All Soldiers who are Roman Catholics or Dissenters from the Church of England may, on signifying their wish to that effect to the Commanding Officer, or to the Schoolmaster if the Commanding Officer should so direct, absent themselves during the time devoted to Prayers, the reading of the Scriptures, and the Scripture Lessons, which shall take place at the time fixed before the School opens for general instruction; and all Soldiers who are Roman Catholics or Dissenters from the Church of England, who have so absented themselves, shall attend at the time appointed by the Commanding Officer for opening the School for general instruction.

In like manner the Children of Roman Catholic Soldiers, or of Soldiers dissenting from the Church of England, may be allowed to absent themselves from 9 A.M. to 9·20, when religious instruction is afforded, provided their parents signify their wish to this effect in writing to the Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress, and such Children should attend at the opening of the School for general instruction, viz., at 9·20.

Sunday Duties.

39. The provisions of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army with respect to attendance at Divine Service fully apply to Army Schoolmasters.

Schoolmasters of the Third and Fourth Classes may, at the discretion of the Commanding Officer, be required to fall in in rear of the Troops, and accompany them to Church or Chapel, unless they accompany the School Children.

Attendance at the Sunday Schools for the purpose of giving religious instruction is optional, these Schools being left to the management and direction of the Chaplains to the Forces; but the Secretary of State expects

Digitized by Google

Army Schoolmasters to co-operate actively with the Chaplain to induce the attendance of all the Children under their instruction at Sunday Schools, with a view to that more specific religious teaching which cannot be conveniently given in the weekly school attendance.

Schoolmistresses are expected to co operate with the Chaplain and the Schoolmaster with regard to the attendance of Female Children at Sunday Schools.

Both Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses, unless reasonable cause to the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the Commanding Officer, will accompany the School Children to Church or Chapel, and will be expected to endeavour on all occasions by their own influence and example to promote the religious welfare of those persons subjected to their influence.

They are not to be required to attend at any form of Divine worship to which they entertain conscientious objections.

A Scholmaster of the First-class may, for misconduct or neglect of duty, be reduced to a lower class by the sentence of a General, District or Garrison Court Martial.

These amounts will be credited to the public as in Art. 19.

Instruction of Officers' Children.

SIR, Horse Guards (S. W.), 27th July, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to transmit to you the accompanying copies of a Memorandum dated 3rd July, 1857, containing instructions for making up and vouching the Accounts of Troops and Companies, which you will be pleased to have inserted in the several Troop or Company Ledgers in the place of the Instructions issued on the 10th of August, 1850.

I have the honor to be, &c.
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

Horse Guards (S. W.), 3rd July, 1857.

CONSIDERABLE inconvenience and uncertainty having been caused by the contradictory directions which have from time to time been issued in the several Districts and Foreign Stations, as to the correct mode of making up and keeping Troop and Company Accounts, and it appearing to the Commander-in-Chief desirable that one uniform system of book-keeping should be adopted and adhered to throughout the Service, his Grace has been pleased to approve of the following instructions on that head, and to direct that a copy of this memorandum be pasted in every ledger in the Army, for the information and guidance of Officers paying troops and companies:—

1st.—A separate page is to be assigned to every non-commissioned officer and man of the troop or company in the Memorandum or Day-book, in which are to be inserted the date of the issue, and the exact cost of all articles of necessaries, and any occasional extra payments in cash; but no general charges, such as "amount of daily payments," "barrack damages," "washing," &c. need be entered therein. With the exception of these general charges, it is obvious that the entries in the Day-book ought to agree with those in the ledger.

2nd.—Every man is to have a clear leaf of the Ledger to himself, with his name and regimental number distinctly written on the top of each page, and no new account is ever to be opened on the leaf containing the accounts of any man who may have become non-effective. By this means, when men happen to be transferred from one company to another, the leaves containing their accounts may be removed or transferred with them.

3rd.—The date of the issue of all articles of necessaries or extra payments in cash must be stated in the proper column, in the margin of the account, in the Ledger, and all entries should be clearly and distinctly transcribed from the Day-book, without contractions, and no two entries should be made on the same line, unless it should appear that the articles charged have been issued on the same day.

4th.—In order to show at once the expense of the soldier's living, the cost of the ration is to be included in the charge for "Messing," the daily rate of which is to be specified.

5th.—As the men should receive the residue of their pay, after paying for their living, in daily proportions as nearly equal as possible, it is not expected that the amount charged under the head of "daily payment" should in all cases exactly balance the account, or that there should not occasionally be a balance of a few pence, one way or the other, at the end of the month.

6th.—Every man who can write, however badly, must be required to sign his own name to his account, in presence of the officer paying the troop or company, who will sign it at the same time, and whose signature is to be considered a voucher that he actually saw the man attach his signature to the account, after having had it read over and explained to him.

7th.—Men who cannot write their names must in like manner make their marks in presence of the officer and of a third party (not the Pay Serjeant), who is to sign as a witness, not to the correctness of the account—with which he has no concern—but to his having seen the man verify it by attaching his mark to it.

8th.—The ordinary and correct mode of attaching the mark as a signature to an account or other document is thus—his Thomas × Atkins

mark

9th.—It is to be understood that the men's small Account Books and the Acquittance Rolls of Companies are to be signed at the same time with the accounts in the Ledger.

10th.—The following is a specimen of the manner in which the entries should be made in the Ledger and the accounts verified.

IT having been decided that all Regiments shall be recruited to their full establishment of 1,000 Rank and File, I have received the General Commanding-in-Chief's commands to notify to you accordingly, and to signify his Royal Highness's desire that you take the necessary steps for completing the Regiment under your command, for which purpose you will recruit with the utmost possible activity at Head Quarters, and propose an immediate arrangement for sending out three Recruiting Parties, submitting such Stations as shall be deemed most eligible.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments of Cavalry.

General No. 12 C.—1. Riding Establishment, 2.

Horse Guards (S. W.), July 28th, 1857.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief desires, that a Field Officer shall be present when the whole of the Officers of a Regiment are ordered to ride in the School.

It is not, however, intended that a Field Officer shall be present at the instruction of Officers who have not been dismissed from Riding School drills.

By Command.

Adjutant General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Military Train.

General Number 13. A.—8. Military Train, 2.

Horse Guards (S. W.), 30th July, 1857.

When Convoys proceed beyond a day's march from their Quarters, they are to be detailed, as far as practicable, in Sections of the Corps,—that is, in half Troops, Troops or Battalions, which are to be completed for the march to their respective regulated Establishments of mounted and dismounted men.

The dismounted men, who may be calculated at the rate of one to every off-horse in harness, should form the Escort on the march, and take their tour of guards and other duties in Billets.

The Officer commanding the Convoy will of course be guided in his arrangements for the security of his Waggons at the end of each march, by any special instructions which he may be furnished with; but, as a general rule, he will seek to place them in an enclosure, such as a Police-Station or Stable-Yard; and when in charge of ammunition, he will exercise the greatest caution in making his arrangements for its security, in communication with the authorities of the place. In all cases the Waggons are to be parked at close order, and the number of Sentries regulated according to circumstances.

The Officer in command will bear in mind the nature of his trust while on detached duty:—that he is responsible not only for the comfort and discipline of the men, the condition of the horses, and the state of the carriages and equipments, but for the Stores conveyed in them also; and that they are given over by him in the same order and quantity as recorded in the Receipt and Delivery Vouchers in his possession.

For the performance of the last important duty this Corps was specially formed; therefore every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Private has a direct interest in faithfully and conscientiously discharging it; and having also the honour of guarding the public Stores committed to their charge, they will feel proud of the double duty thus assigned to them.

This arrangement is not to affect Convoys of Regimental Baggage, but refers to public Stores only.

Each Regiment will furnish its own Baggage Guard on the line of march, and be responsible for its safety.

Officers commanding Baggage Guards on such occasions are not to interfere with the Officer commanding the Military Train on the line of march, the conveyance of Baggage being under his especial directions.

By Command.

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

General Number, 14, A. 9. — Honorary Distinctions, 8.

Horse Guards (S.W.), 7th August, 1857.

It being necessary that Medals and other Decorations conferred on the Troops should be duly taken care of by the Soldiers, the General Commanding in-Chief desires that they may be produced at the weekly inspections of necessaries, when Commanding Officers of Troops and Companies are to ascertain that they are the property of the men showing them.

When a Soldier is unable to produce his Medal, a Board is to be assembled, consisting of a Captain (as President) and two other Officers, for the purpose of inquiring into and recording the circumstances under which the loss may have occurred, and if apparently attributable to design, the man is to be confined and brought to trial, when if convicted of pawning or wilfully making away with his medal, he is, in addition to any punishment the Court may be competent to award, to be put under stoppages until the value of the article be made good. The sum so recovered is to be credited to the Public by the Paymaster, but a new Medal is not to be issued to the Soldier until he has re-established his claim thereto by an undeviating course of good conduct for five years.

If the Board is of opinion that the loss is the result of carelessness or neglect, the Medal may be replaced, at the Soldier's own expense, on his establishing a claim thereto by a course of good conduct for two years.

If the loss is proved to be accidental, the Board may recommend a new Medal to be given to the Soldier at the expense of the Public; the recommendation, if approved by the Commanding Officer, being forwarded by him to the Adjutant General for the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War.

Soldiers sentenced to loss of Service for disgraceful conduct, or convicted of Desertion, are to be deprived of their Medals and Decorations, with their diplomas (if any), and the former can only be returned to them on their Service being restored as prescribed by Her Majesty's Regulations.

When a Soldier loses his Medals or Decorations, by design or carelessness, or is deprived of them, his disgrace is to be published in Regimental Orders.

By Command.

Adjutant General.

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments and Depôts of Infantry.

General Number, 15	Instruction of Musketry
B. 4	16

Horse Guards (S. W.), 12th August, 1857.

The General Commanding-in-Chief has desired that the attention of General Officers of Divisions and Brigades, and that of Commanding Officers of Regiments, Depôt Battalions and Depôts, may be drawn to the Circular Memorandum of the 26th March last; and with reference to that portion thereof which directs "Captains and Subalterns to attend rifle practice with their companies," as well as to the directions at page 111 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, that "no Officer is to be dismissed from drill until he has gone through a course of rifle instruction under the regimental instructor," requests that General Officers will require the District Inspectors of Musketry to accompany them, when practicable, on their tours of inspection, for the purpose of catechising Officers of Companies indiscriminately selected, with a view of ascertaining that they are acquainted with the theory and practice of musketry as laid down in the existing regulations.

The laws affecting the flight of projectiles—the arrangement of the sights—the preliminary instruction in aiming and position drill—the judging distance drill—the details of practice in the first, second and third periods—in platoon firing and skirmishing—the number of targets for each practice—the mode of calculating the points—the preparation of the company returns and the manufacture of cartridges, &c. will all afford matter of inquiry for the District Inspector, who will furnish the General Officer with any information he may require on the above particulars, to enable him to reply to the several questions in the Confidential Reports in regard to the "Instruction of Officers and Men" and the "Exercise of Arms."

I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to request that you will forward to this office, for his Lordship's information, answers to the following questions respecting the Targets for Musketry Practice at present in your charge, viz:—

1. Have any targets been broken at practice?
2. If so, at what ranges?
3. Whether by firing vollies, or by single file firing?
4. If vollies, how many men fired at once; and after how many rounds was the breakage effected?

Sir, War Office (S. W.), 15th August, 1857.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to acquaint you that his Lordship has decided that no deduction shall be made from the Staff Pay and Allowances of Officers of the General Staff at Home during continuous or intermittent periods of Absence on Leave, not exceeding in the whole two months in each year, viz., from 1st January to 31st December, provided the duties of the appointment be duly performed without extra charge to the public, and that it be notified in General Orders that the Horses for which the commuted Forage Allowance is claimed have been left at the Station, so as to be at all times ready for the Public Service.

I am therefore to request, in order that the settlement of the Quarterly Contingent Claims of Officers of the General Staff at Home may not be delayed, pending the receipt at this Office of the Adjutant General's Staff Returns, that, in every case in which an Officer claims allowances during absence on leave, a Certificate may be annexed of the dates from and to which such absence has extended, together with a certified copy of the Order showing that the Horses, on account of which Forage Allowance is claimed, were left during the period for the Public Service.

These documents will be taken as sufficient for admitting charges for Allowances during periods of Leave, not exceeding two months in each year; but a refund will be required should the Certificate be subsequently found at variance with the Adjutant General's Staff Returns.

I have the honor to be, &c.

Sir, War Office (S. W.), 18th August, 1857.

The Secretary of State for War having directed that there should be laid before him annually a statement showing the cost of all the stores purchased and expended by the War Department at home and abroad during each financial year, and the value of the stores remaining in charge of the Department at the end of the year, I am directed by his Lordship to desire that, in future, immediately after the 31st day of March, you will forward to this Office the transcript of your Store-Ledger, in order that this statement may be compiled.

It is believed that, even at the largest stations, an energetic Storekeeper, with intelligent and assiduous clerks, can send in his Transcript Ledger for examination much earlier than the period hitherto allowed, provided the ledger and its transcript be kept closely posted up, so that at the end of the year the totals of the receipts and issues shall alone remain to be ascertained and the balance to be struck, instead of postponing the preparation of the transcript altogether until the year has expired.

The necessity of an early transmission of the Transcript-Ledger will be obvious from the fact that the valuations required by the Secretary of State cannot be commenced until the compilation of every kind of store in charge of each of the Storekeepers at home and abroad has been completed and the aggregates ascertained, and also because the practical utility of this return entirely depends upon the early period within which it shall be ready for his Lordship's consideration. I rely, therefore, with confidence upon the zeal and energy of the Storekeepers to prevent any delay in carrying out his Lordship's instructions.

MEMORANDUM.

ARTIFICIAL ARMS AND LEGS.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital having at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made Arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that, as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

Gen. No.
78

MEMORANDUM.

ANY Captain applying to the Secretary of State for War to be appointed a Staff Officer of Pensioners should answer distinctly the following questions as to his qualifications:

1st. What is his age? Whether on Full or Half Pay? Whether serving abroad or at home?

2nd. Has he completed FIFTEEN years' service on Full Pay, and in what Corps?

3rd. What is the date of his Commission as Captain?

4th. Has he received the difference when placed on Half Pay? Did he retire at his own request, from ill health, or from wounds?

5th. Has he served as Adjutant, or Paymaster, or on the Staff in any capacity likely to qualify him for the duties of Staff Officer of Pensioners?

6th. Has he certificates of ability and fitness from Officers under whom he served?

N.B. Officers under or above the rank of Captain, or whose appointment would involve immediate Brevet Rank, or who, having received the difference, are not prepared to repay it, are ineligible for the appointment of Staff Officer of Pensioners.

MEMORANDUM.

FIELD OFFICERS who have retired from the Service by the Sale of their Commissions, and wish their Names to be restored to and retained in the ARMY LIST in Italics, will be pleased, in their Applications for this Privilege to the General Commanding in Chief, to state the Dates of their last Commissions, Brevet as well as Regimental, and also that of their Retirements.

HORSE GUARDS,
29th May, 1855.

ALL FIELD OFFICERS whose names are allowed to be retained in the ARMY LIST, whether they may have sold out since or previously to the issuing of Her Majesty's Royal Warrant of the 6th October, 1854, shall send a Certificate to Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War of their being alive on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year.

If such Certificate due on the 1st January be not received at the War Office by the 1st April, and that due on the 1st July by the 1st October, it will be concluded that the Officer is deceased, and his name will be removed from the ARMY LIST.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.
